The Algarve/West Algarve region

Casa Monte Cristo Três is located approximately 4 km from the historic town of Lagos which was the capital of the Algarve from 1578 until 1756 leaving a legacy of stunning Churches and winding streets, not to mention the original city walls and harbour. A more recent addition is the town's stunning modern marina where the rich and famous keep their yachts for those summer adventures and local fishermen cast off to catch sardines and other local fish which can be sampled in Lagos' many fantastic restaurants.

Lagos is also home to many shops and boutiques which you'll take at least a day to get through.

Lagos/Funchal Ridge area

The Western Algarve is famous for its clean air, traditional food and wine, and historic beauty spots but of course, it's most popular attractions are it's huge range of sandy beaches. Whether it is basking on miles of sand on the south coast, or exploring the rugged West Coast's secret coves either by boat trip or by car and making the most of the Atlantic's rolling surf, we are sure you will find these beaches the most beautiful in the Algarve.

Lagos has a myriad of cafes and restaurants spilling onto the street giving you a fantastic choice of cuisine. Most people like to wander the streets after dinner and browse at the local street craft stalls or to watch the street theatre and jugglers or sit and have a cool cocktail and be entertained by buskers.
